

MARTIN FAMILY

Updated 6 Apr 2026

Truman Martin (1769-1863) number 26 in this register, was listed in the 1800 Groton census as head of a family with one male 10-15 and one 26-44, three females under 10 and one 26-44 years of age, but GHS family records have his marriage to Mary "Polly" Noyes later in 1807 at Peacham and their first child born in 1809 in Peacham. Perhaps he had other relatives living with him in the 1800 Groton census? Truman Martin is mentioned only once in Mr. Glover's Groton history on page 137, quoting from the Peacham Congregational Church records about a meeting of Groton citizens to organize a church, "Brother Truman Martin was also chosen Delegate to attend the Pastor, to assist in organizing a church." The record was dated 13 Dec. 1829, so it appears the family had moved back to Peacham soon after the 1800 census, as they are not listed in any later Groton censuses before his death in 1863 at Peacham.
